Lifelong Learning Wales Record (LLWR) Privacy notice Part One (Short Version)

Introduction

The learning programme you are about to enrol on is funded either directly by the Welsh Government (WG) or part funded via the European Social Fund (ESF) approved operations (through the Welsh Government).

Your participation in the programme is dependent on you providing personal data. The legal basis we rely on to process your personal data is article 6(1)(e) of the UK General Data Protection Regulation. This allows us to meet our legal duties and administer and monitor the funding we provide. Where you provide special category information, such as ethnicity, this will be processed with your consent. A full list of special category data can be found in Part Two/Full Version of the privacy notice.

The Welsh Government will be the data controller for the personal information you provide.

If your programme is ESF funded, you will be asked by your learning provider to supply additional evidence such as a passport, recent payslip or qualification certificate. A copy of this evidence will be kept by your learning provider for ESF audit purposes, and a sample of learner evidence across providers will be sent to the Welsh Government.

What will the Welsh Government use your information for?

The Welsh Government uses your data for funding, planning and policy development as well as monitoring learner outcomes (such as achievement of qualifications, learner progress and destinations).

Additionally, your data will be used in official statistics and research about post-16 learning, including how health and individual circumstances affect the educational outcomes of learners in Wales. Our official statistics reports give an overall picture of learners in Wales, what they study, their achievements and their destinations after they leave learning. They include, for example, information on patterns in learners' gender, ages, and the qualifications, subjects and levels they are studying. Individual learners cannot be identified in these publications.

As part of the new Jobs Growth Wales Plus (JGW+) employment strand, data will be used to determine Welsh Government wage rate subsidy payments whilst during the period of employment, to ensure the correct wage is being paid for the participant. Employer data will also be used to support, monitor and determine the destination of those participants through employment.

Research organisations will also use post-16 learner data to evaluate Welsh education policies and programmes. As part of these evaluations, they may also conduct optional learner surveys, which will assess the impact of a programme on the individual learner as well as contribute to future Welsh Government policy development; for example, establishing how much apprentices are paid, which then contributes to developing a national minimum wage policy.

In order for the Welsh Government to evaluate the impact of its programmes on certain groups of learners, we will link your data with other educational records we hold, such as the Pupil Level Annual Schools Census, Welsh Examinations Database and Higher Education Statistics Authority. We use this linked data to help us understand the progress and outcomes of learners in Wales, to inform our research, performance measures and statistical publications. We may also share this linked data with researchers and with our partners, including Estyn and Qualifications Wales, to help them carry out their own data analysis to inform inspections and reviews. Individual learners cannot be identified in the linked data we share with our partners.

For a more detailed list of how your data is used, please refer to Part Two/Full Version of this privacy notice.

This may include contacting learners past and present to take part in surveys, although you will always have the option to take part or not in the survey if contacted.
- By the Office for National Statistics (ONS), to publish aggregate statistics related to the economy, population and society at UK, Wales, and local levels. These statistics will be published in a manner that ensures it is not possible to identify individuals. One of the key ONS statistical products is the 2021 Census. The ONS will use the data to help improve the accuracy of the 2021 Census. The ONS will also use the data to undertake research, or to make de-identified data available to approved researchers (as defined in the Digital Economy Act), through their secure research environment. ONS statistical and research projects may involve linking data to other data sources to help understand the interaction between the education system and other issues such as health, well-being or the economy. Your name, address and postcode will remain separate from your data at all times and will not be available in the Secure Research Environment. The information is used for statistical and research purposes only. An example of the key research questions that are answered by this work is how health and individual circumstances affect the educational attainment of learners in Wales.
- By Qualifications Wales to undertake analysis of learner numbers at qualification and sector levels, to help inform sector reviews of qualifications.
- By Estyn. Learner number data is analysed and used by Estyn inspectors as part of their inspections of learning undertaken in further education institutions, work-based learning providers, and adult learning providers.
- By the UK Government Department for Education, to link learner records to employment, earnings and benefits records held by the Department for Work and Pensions, in order to identify and analyse the destinations of learners into further learning and/or employment once they have left learning.

Welsh Government will analyse this linked data internally and will also share it with public bodies such as Estyn, Qualifications Wales and HEFCW or third party research organisations such as universities or independent social and economic research companies. When linked data is shared it will be used to assess the effectiveness of policy in the area of education and training – for example looking at how many people with particular qualifications go on to get specific jobs, comparing outcomes for people who go to different education or training providers or seeing whether particular schemes have achieved what they were supposed to achieve.
